Departing from the Grand Tiara Hotel, this organized tour begins with a visit to Te Puia, New Zealand's leading cultural and geothermal attraction. Opened at the beginning of 2007, the new interpretation centre features an interactive and state of the art presentation of our cultural heritage. The weaving and carving schools will also be included in the tour. The experience continues by coach to Waimangu Volcanic Valley with a choice of a stroll through the world's newest geothermal region or a leisurely boat cruise on Lake Rotomahana. The cost of this tour is included in the convention registration.
- OPTIONAL ACTIVITY
Golf at Rotorua Golf Club, Arikikapakapa
Continuing the Skal annual tradition of a fun but competitive afternoon of golf on a unique, challenging, geothermal golf course. Within walking distance of the Grand Tiara Hotel. Clubs and carts are available for hire. This is an additional cost to participants.
